

PIT OF HELL | Week 2

- Week 1 Recap
- This week let's talk about the idea
- I'm alone and no one really likes me
 - My first couple years of High school I was alone with no friends. I played sports and was good but had no one in my life that I would ever hangout with. I felt worthless.
- Many times, our worth and value comes from likes on a pictures or view on a story
 - Sometimes our biggest obstacle to building friendships is the very thing we think we need in order to maintain them
- Romans 5:8 while we were still sinners
- Ephesians 2:4-5
- We all want to feel alive
- Can we gain our confidence in Christ
- Are we willing to look for friendship in other places?
 - Going to church with our guard down
 - People who are not the "popular" people
 - People who are not your style
 - Talk about my friend group
 - Geeky Engineer
 - Goofy Marketing major
 - Unathletic athletic trainer
 - Books smart youth min major
 - But we all work together
- Can we gain our confidence in Christ?
- Are we willing to look for friendships?
