

Week 5

Loveology - Panel Questions

[This can be used with a panel of married couples in your church]

- Enneagram/gender/base level differences that put up walls in your relationship?
- Boys are waffles girls are spaghetti??
- What are some things you didn't know would be important in marriage?
- What did you look for in a spouse?
- Why didn't you date in High School?
- Do you wish you could have dated each other sooner?
- What were your boundaries and when did you set them?
- Does "submitting" mean you can't lead at all?
- What is different about the different stages of dating/engagement/marriage?
- What does it look like to incorporate different stages of life or world views into a relationship?
- What is most important to look for in someone you want to date/marry?
- What is the hardest part of marriage?
- Why do people say they realize how selfish they are when they get married?
- What has been the most difficult area of differences to understand/empathize with each other about?
- Do you find your relationship to be an accurate representation of Christ loving the church?