

Hebrews 13

- We need to run the race
- We need to pursue love and good works
- We have help to persevere

What does love and good works look like practically?
-it looks different for each of us each day

List the commands in chapter 13. How specifically can you apply that to your life?

1) Do not forget to entertain strangers

- show hospitality
- take someone out to eat or make them a meal
- give someone a ride

2) Remember the prisoners

- stand together in school
- be a support to someone going through a struggle
- pray for persecuted Christians in other parts of the world

3) Marriage is honorable, keep marriage bed undefiled

- maintain your sexual purity
- seek to have good relationships now that prepare you for marriage
- learn how to care for someone else

4) Be content

- learn to be appreciative and thankful for what you have rather than always looking to what you don't have

5) Remember those who rule over you

- support your youth leaders and pastors
- show them care and respect
- *you guys encourage and strength me as much as I do for you

6) Do not be carried by strange doctrines

- be careful what you are listening to
- both inside and outside the church

7) Offer the sacrifice of praise

- take time to verbally thank God

8) Pray for us

- listen to each other's prayer requests and pray for each other on your own time

9) bear with the word of exhortation

- keep learning what it is to do love and good works